

Weekly NEWS

Manufactures

Airbus To Cut A380 Production

European planemaker Airbus plans to cut production of its A380 superjumbo from 2017 as it struggles to revive sales of the world's largest passenger jet, two industry sources said.

Read more

Solar-Powered Plane Completes Journey Across Pacific Ocean

Solar Impulse 2, the Swiss solar-powered plane, landed in California on Saturday, completing a risky three-day flight across the Pacific Ocean as part of...

Bombardier Cutting a Further 50 Jobs This Year: Around 630 Staff To Go

Bombardier is cutting a further 50 staff this year, bringing the total job losses this year to 630.

Read more

Read more

Airlines & Airports

Best and Worst Airlines in the U.S.

The truth is that not all airlines are created equal. Some try harder, some cut more corners and a few introduce raw sewage to the flying experience.

Read more

Phase 1A of World's Largest Airport on Track For 2018 Opening

Plans are on schedule for the opening of what will ultimately become the world's largest airport, in Istanbul, Turkey.

Read more

Regulations & Safety

Germany Aviation Riddled With Safety Lapses, Says Confidential Report

Germany is one of Europe's worst enforcers of air safety rules, trailing only Greece in failing to comply with basic requirements to protect passengers, according to a confidential report by Europe's top aviation watchdog.

Read more

Finland To Be First European Country To Adopt New IOSA

The Finnish transport safety agency TRAFI is to become the first body to start using the new IATA Operational Safety Audit (IOSA) after...

Read more

FAA Approves Ethanol-Based Biojet Fuel

The FAA has approved a new bio-based jet fuel for aviation use, produced from ethanol derived from renewable feed stocks.

Read more

Aviation Training

Aviation Future: Pilot Shortage And New Deliveries

Today we can easily see how the emerging economies are expanding and becoming more stable. It is just a question of time when the people from those countries will be able to...

Read more

New Airbus Asia Training Centre opens in Singapore

The new Airbus Asia Training Centre (AATC), a joint venture owned 55% by Airbus and 45% by Singapore Airlines (SIA), was officially opened in Singapore today.

Read more

MRO

Urgent Repairs Ordered on Boeing 787 Dreamliner Engines

Airlines have been ordered to carry out an urgent fix on 176 Boeing 787 Dreamliners because of an engine icing problem.

Read more

Simulators Industry

Boeing Selects Supplier For 777X Full-flight Simulator Suites

Boeing announced April 19 it has selected , a Textron Inc. company as its supplier for the first 777X full-flight simulator suites for Boeing's pro forma campuses.

Read more

A350 XWB Full-Flight Simulator Installed in Miami

Airbus Training Center (ATC) in Miami – part of the growing worldwide network of Training by Airbus* facilities – has installed its first A350 XWB full-flight simulator.

Read more

UAV/UAS

Drone Collision With Jet Highlights Growing Aviation Danger

A collision between a British Airways passenger jet and a drone over London has left the plane undamaged but the aviation industry deeply shaken.

Read more

Reported Drone Collision Might Have Been a Plastic Bag - Now They Tell Us

It would seem that airport authorities should not count their drones before they're crashed, or something like that.

Read more

Aviation Voice

Aviation Voice - the source of latest aviation news for you. Our goal is to be here and now with all aviation news in one place. No matter if you are a professional or enthusiast we spread the news for everyone.

 SHARE

 TWEET

 FORWARD