

No matter if you are a professional or enthusiast we spread aviation news for everyone.

Weekly NEWS

aviation
voice

Accidents and Investigations

Investigation Into Flydubai Russian Crash Points to Pilot Error

A Flydubai passenger plane crashed in Russia last month after being flown in a contradictory manner minutes before it smashed into the ground, a statement from investigators said on Friday, suggesting pilot error was to blame.

Read more

Airlines & Airports

February Demand Growth Stays Strong: IATA Announced Global Passenger Traffic Results

Geneva – The International Air Transport Association (IATA) announced global passenger traffic results for February showing continuing strong demand growth for domestic and international travel.

Read more

Lufthansa To Restart Some Brussels Flights

Lufthansa will restart some flights to Brussels airport this week, after the airport's partial reopening on Sunday following the suicide bomb attack...

Read more

Alaska Air To Buy Virgin America

Alaska Air has agreed to buy Virgin America for USD$2.6 billion in cash to boost its operation on the US West Coast and compete more effectively with larger airlines.

Read more

TAP Portugal Launch Operator for A330neo with Airspace by Airbus Cabin

Aircraft Interiors Expo (AIX) 2016 – TAP Portugal has signed an agreement with Airbus to be the first operator of the new A330neo airliner...

Read more

Atlas Air Worldwide Acquires Southern Air

Atlas Air Worldwide Holdings, Inc. has completed its acquisition of privately held Southern Air Holdings, Inc., a premier provider of intercontinental and domestic CMI...

Read more

Ground Handling

European Airlines Protest Ground-Handling Cutbacks at Rome Fiumicino

Airlines for Europe (A4E), the lobbying organization that comprises seven major European carriers, has protested to Italian aviation regulator ENAC over plans to cut the number of ground handling agents at Rome Fiumicino Airport.

Read more

Helicopters and UAV/UAS

Airbus Helicopters Begins Tests Of Fire-detection System For Germany

Airbus Helicopters has begun test flights for its German armed forces customer as part of a research and technology programme to develop a hostile fire indication (HFI) system.

Read more

Drones will deliver blood in Rwanda starting this July

Drone delivery might be years away in the North America, but it's becoming a reality in Rwanda this summer.

Read more

European First Responders Will Use DJI Drones In Rescue Operations

DJI, the world's largest commercial drone manufacturer, announced...

Read more

Military & Defense

Russian MiG-31BM Takes Longest Non-Stop Flight in History

Russian pilots managed to break the record for the longest non-stop flight of a MiG-31BM interceptor aircraft, according to Russian Central Military District spokesman Yaroslav Rashchupkin.

Read more

Boeing's KC-46 Test Run Complicated By C-17 Refuelling Issue

The Boeing C-17 heavy cargo aircraft has become the sticking point in an otherwise speedy KC-46A aerial refuelling demonstration phase, with officials confirming that...

Read more

Manufacturers

Boeing, Ryanair Celebrate Milestone Delivery: 400th Next-Generation 737-800

Boeing and Ryanair marked a milestone today with the delivery of the airline's 400th Next-Generation 737-800. The Irish low-cost carrier operates the largest fleet of Next-Generation 737-800s in the world.

Read more

Air France to Equip Its Fleet of Airbus A330 With Its New Travel Cabins

Air France is continuing to upgrade its long-haul cabins and will start to equip its Airbus A330 with its new travel cabins as from the end of 2017...

Read more

Daher Presents Its New Range of TBM Aircraft TBM 930

Daher unveiled the expanded range of its TBM very fast turboprop aircraft family, which now consists of the TBM 900 and the TBM 930 version – each of which retain the performance...

Read more

Siemens And Airbus To Push Electric Aviation Engines

Companies want to jointly develop engine prototypes with power classes ranging from a few 100 kilowatts up to 10 and more megawatts, for short, local trips.

Read more

Boeing Business Jets Grows Presence in China

Boeing Business Jets' (BBJ) success in the Chinese market continues this year with 21 in-service airplanes and three BBJ MAXs currently on order. With unmatched product reliability...

Read more

Africa: Conference Seeks to Tighten African Aviation Security

AFRICA wants to tighten security at airports in line with international standards, amid rising global terrorist threats. Aviation experts are meeting in Windhoek to discuss how to secure and improve the aviation system.

Read more

FAA Panel Recommends Standards For Drone Flights

A US FAA advisory panel has recommended that regulators set new rules allowing drones to fly over members of the public...

Read more

Board Recommends de Juniac for IATA DG & CEO

Geneva - The International Air Transport Association (IATA) announced a decision of its Board of Governors (BoG), unanimously approved at an IATA BoG meeting today...

Read more

US Senators Reach Deal To Improve Airport Security

The US Senate has agreed to boost security at airports in the aftermath of the Brussels attacks, according to a media report.

Read more

Aviation Voice

Aviation Voice - the source of latest aviation news for you. Our goal is to be here and now with all aviation news in one place. No matter if you are a professional or enthusiast we spread the news for everyone.