

Editor's Review

Is Russian MS-21 Good Enough to Join the Oligopolistic Market?

On 8 June Russia's United Aircraft Corp. unveiled the next domestic airliner which is believed to achieve remarkable success in penetrating the global commercial aviation market.

Read more

Airbus and Boeing: Rivals or Partners?

Undoubtedly, Airbus and Boeing are

Commercial Drones - A New Page In The World Of Labour

The rapidly globalizing world is considered to be not only the most powerful units in the large jet airliner market but arch rivals, too.

Read more

dramatically accelerating the pace of various innovations occurring within all the spheres possible, and drones are not left aside.

Read more

Airlines & Airports

Ryanair - The First Airline Carrying Over 11 m Passengers Per Month

By the end of July Ryanair had carried 110.7 million customers so far in 2016 - with 11.3 million people flying during July alone.

Read more

European Airports Report 4.9% Traffic Growth In First Half Of 2016

European airport trade body, ACI EUROPE released its airport traffic report for June, Q2 and the first half of 2016.

Read more

American Airlines to Increase Payment for 30,000 Ground Employees

Increases give employees the highest hourly wage rates among their peers at other carriers.

Read more

Cathay Cuts A340s as A350s Roll In

Cathay Pacific is moving to retire all its Airbus A340-300s by the end of 2017, as it prepares to take A350-900s in quick succession over the next two years.

Read more

Manufacturers

Airbus Pursues Autonomous Air Taxi Research Project

Airbus Group has provided a glimpse into its research on air taxis as a solution for growing surface-transport gridlock in the largest cities.

Read more

Boeing Delivers 50th 787 Dreamliner to ANA

Boeing and ANA celebrated the delivery of the airline's 50th 787 Dreamliner during a ceremony at Boeing's Everett Delivery Center.

Read more

Piper Receives EASA Approval of M500

Piper Aircraft, Inc. announced it has been awarded approval from the European Aviation Safety Agency (EASA), for the Piper M500, clearing the way for the innovative aircraft to enter into service on the European register.

Read more

Airbus Delivers World's First A330-300 Regional to Saudi Arabian Airlines

Saudi Arabian Airlines has taken delivery of its first A330-300 Regional, making it the launch customer for this new member of the versatile and successful A330 family.

Read more

EASA

European Aviation Safety Agency

EASA Strengthens Medical Requirements for Pilots

EASA published a set of proposals to the European Commission for an update of the rules concerning pilots' medical fitness, as part of its Action Plan following the Germanwings Flight 9525 accident.

Read more

The FAA is Hiring Air Traffic Controllers

In preparation for the future workforce, FAA announced that it will be accepting applications from entry-level candidates for air traffic controller positions from August 8-15, 2016.

Read more

China to Raise Standards for New Airline Entrants

The Civil Aviation Administration of China (CAAC) is expected to raise the bar on approving new entrants in the domestic airline industry in light of market saturation and possible excessive competition.

Read more

Military & Defence

Afghan Air Force Needs More Pilots and Planes

The Afghan air force is limited not only by its size. Despite numbering only 130 aircraft, there are not enough pilots and crews to fly them all.

Read more

US Air Force Declares F-35A Combat Ready

Australia's fighter jet has passed a milestone with the US Air Force declaring the Lockheed Martin F-35A Joint Strike Fighter ready.

Read more

Boeing Awarded $2.8B for KC-46A Tanker Initial Production

The U.S. Air Force awarded Boeing $2.8 billion on Aug. 18 for KC-46A tanker low-rate initial production.

Read more

Helicopters & UAV/UAS

India, Russia Sign $300Mln Deal on Upgrade of 10 Ka-28 Helicopters

According to navy spokesman, Indian Navy and Russian state arms exporter Rosoboronexport signed a deal worth nearly $300 million to modernize 10 Russia-produced Ka-28 anti-submarine helicopters.

Read more

Kuwait Orders French Airbus Transport Helicopters in $1.1 Billion Deal

Kuwait ordered 30 Airbus military transport helicopters worth more than €1 billion ($1.1 billion), the latest step in a long-term tie between the Gulf nation and France.

Read more

Facebook's Internet-Delivery Drone Completes First Test Flight

Facebook has carried out its first test flight of a solar-powered drone to provide faster and inexpensive internet access to remote regions.

Read more

New FAA Drone Regulations Mean New Business Opportunities

It is clear that drones are not just for fun and games, but will help improve our lives in countless ways.

Read more

Accidents

China to Limit North Korean Airline's Operations After Forced Landing

China will limit the operations of Air Koryo after one of its aircraft made an emergency landing in a northeastern Chinese city last month.

Read more

Airlander 10, World's Largest Aircraft, Damaged During Test Flight

The world's largest aircraft, the Airlander 10, has sustained damage during its second test flight in central England.

Read more

Aviation Voice

Aviation Voice - echoes with up-to-date news gathered from the whole world of aviation. No matter if you are a professional or an enthusiast, the news delivered are oriented towards everyone. Consequently, steadily growing audience proves that our team is on a right track.

 SHARE

 TWEET

 FORWARD